EXPLANATORY.

THE pages of this book are numbered at the bottom, in ordinary way. The number opposite a name on the left hand margin refers to the page on which will be found the Family Record of such person.

The Secretary of the Association spent more than two years in procuring the material from which this Record is compiled, and wrote hundreds of letters and cards for facts pertaining to the work.

Where dates, etc., are omitted it means that the Secretary was unable to procure the material in time for this book.

THE PUBLISHER.

Kirksville, Mo., Dec. 15th, 1910.

THE HEINY FAMILY.

About the middle of the eighteenth century Jacob and Sebastian Heiny, aged seventeen and fifteen years respectively, left their native home: Darmstadt, Hesse, Germany, and came to America. They had no means to pay their passage, and in those days, tradition says, they were sold to labor to pay the same. Of these Sebastian was sold near Baltimore, Maryland and was never heard of afterwards, but it is supposed he returned to Germany. Jacob, who is our ancestor, was sold in Pennsylvania, near Lancaster. After gaining his freedom he married Miss — Diefenbach. We have no exact date of their marriage but their first child was born in 1759. That the above mentioned Jacob Heiny was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, is established from the fact that the secretary of the Heiny Family has in her possession a Certificate from Luther R. Kelker, Custodian of Public Records of the Pennsylvania State Library, which reads as follows:

"Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, U. S. A.

To WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

July 28th, 1910.

I hereby certify that the following, viz.: 'Jacob Heiny, Private,' is taken from an alphabetical List of Non-commissioned Officers and Privates in the Penn'a. Regiment of Artillery, War of the Revolution.

See p. 1019, Volume Three, Pennsylvania Archives, Fifth Series.

In testimony whereof I hereby affix the Seal of this Department.

LUTHER R. KELKER,
Custodian of Public Records.

NOAH HEINY (deceased), a great grand-son of Jacob Heiny, came into possession of some of his papers, among them being an old receipt given to Jacob Heiny, about the darkest time of the Revolutionary War, for fifteen pairs of shoes for the use of the State of Pennsylvania. It is generally supposed that it was for the soldiers. According to this receipt it appears as if he was a shoemaker, but this is only conjecture. The above mentioned receipt is filed in the geological rooms, or museum, in the state house at Indianapolis, Indiana, where it can be seen at any time.

We are indebted to the before mentioned Noah Heiny for the preservation of the old history and many of the older records contained in this book. Since his decease his daughter, Miss Emma Heiny, Cambridge City, Ind., has in her possession the old family Bible of Jacob Heiny. It contains his family record written in German. Part of it is worn away but the remainder is translated as follows: (A dash denotes words worn away.)

"My son — Heiny was born Apr. 13th, 1759, in the sign of fish.

My son Jacob was born July —, 1761, in sign of fish.

My son Isaac was born July 7th, 1763, in sign of twins.

My son Jacob the second was born Dec. 18th, 1765, in sign of fish.

My son Joseph was born July 25th, 1767, in sign of Leo (or heart).

My son John was born May 16th, 1769, in sign of scales.

My son Samuel was born Feb. 1st, 1771, in sign of virgin.

My son Henry was born July 19th, 1773, in sign of —.

My son Daniel was born May 16th, 1775, in sign of bowman.

My son David was born June 13th, 1777, in sign of virgin.

My daughter — and her brother George were born June 4th; 1779, in sign of scales. (Twins).

My son — was born March 14th, 1781, in sign of goat.

Like Jacob of old they had twelve sons and one daughter. We have no date of his birth, marriage or death. Tradition has it that Jacob the first, Henry, Daniel, George, the daughter and the youngest son died in infancy.

Isaac Heiny, third child of Jacob Heiny, married Fannica (Fannie) Brenneman. Isaac Heiny was married the second time to Susan Lampe. He died in the spring of 1832.

Jacob Heiny, fourth child of Jacob Heiny, married and raised a large family.

Joseph Heiny, fifth child of Jacob Heiny, married Elizabeth Greiter.

Joha Heiny, sixth child of Jacob Heiny, married Elizabeth Stern.

Samuel Heiny, seventh child of Jacob Heiny, married Barbara Stern.

David Heiny, tenth child of Jacob Heiny—?

Descendants of Joseph Heiny, fifth child of Jacob Heiny and descendants of John Heiny, sixth child of Jacob Heiny, have attended the Family Reunions of the descendants of Samuel Heiny, seventh child of Jacob Heiny. The secretary is also in communication with descendants of Isaac Heiny, third child of Jacob Heiny, viz.: Mrs. Martha (Heiny) Haverstick, Mrs. Fannie (Heiny) Fisher and Isaac Heiny, all of R. F. D. No. 7, Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

We will now take up the lineage of Samuel Heiny, seventh child of Jacob Heiny, of whom we are descendants.

- 2 SAMUEL HEINY, the seventh son of Jacob and — Heiny, was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, Feb. 1st, 1771. Of his boyhood days we know but little. He had sufficient education, in German, to read and write, but could not as much as write his name in English. We have no exact date of his marriage but about the year 1795 he was married to Barbara Stern, daughter of Peter Stern. She was of a large family. Her sister Elizabeth Stern was married to John Heiny, brother of Samuel and sixth son of Jacob.

About the year 1824 this family left Pennsylvania, with the exception of Catherine who married in Pennsylvania and who came to Indiana later. They came to near Dayton, Ohio where they lived until the following spring (1825) when they moved to Wayne County, Indiana, settling on a farm about four miles from where Cambridge City, Indiana, is now located. Samuel and his wife Barbara (Stern) Heiny lived on this farm until Samuel's death in September, 1847. He (Samuel) was killed by the kick of a horse. He lived until carried from the barn to the house where he immediately expired. After his death his wife Barbara (Stern) Heiny made her home with her second son Abraham Heiny.

While the family was together they carried on farming, clearing, blacksmithing and distilling, but it was not many years until they were all married. They were all married in Wayne County, Ind., except Catherine. The farm upon which this family located was in possession of the Heiny lineage until the fall of 1909, when the heirs of the before mentioned Noah Heiny disposed of it.

- 3 CATHERINE HEINY (second daughter of Samuel and Barbara (Stern) Heiny) and Benjamin Miller were united in marriage in Lancaster City, Pa., Aug. 31, 1823.

In August, 1835, this family came from Pennsylvania to Wayne County, Ind., where the parents of the family lived until the mother's death, after which the father made his home with his son B. R. Miller, of Cicero, Hamilton Co., Ind., until his death. In the spring of 1910 the secretary addressed the post-masters of Stumptown (now New Danville) and Lancaster, Pa., asking for names and addresses of any Heinys still living in that locality, from where our ancestors emigrated eighty-six years ago. Among other names received was that of Isaac Heiny, R. 7, Lancaster, Pa. A letter addressed to him, asking for information regarding the Heiny ancestry, was answered by his sister, Mrs. Martha (Heiny) Haverstick (see page 3) who has in her possession the old Bible which contains the record of her grand-father Isaac Heiny, thirf child of Jacob Heiny, who came from Germany. Mrs. Haverstick informs us that in this old Bible, there is a paper upon which is written the following: "Benjamin Miller was born in Connestoga township, Lancaster Co., state of Pennsylvania, 21st day of February in the year of our Lord 1795. Sept. 12, 1822." When compared the above date of birth is identical with the date of birth of Benjamin Miller who married Catherine Heiny, which proves beyond a doubt, that it was the same Benjamin Miller. The latter date, Sept. 12th, 1822, was presumably when he wrote the slip, which would have been almost a year before he married into the Heiny family, and eighty-eight years Sept. 12th, 1910 since it was written.

NEWSPAPER CLIPPINGS

OF THE HEINY REUNIONS.

FIRST HEINY REUNION.

On Thursday, Sept. 7, 1899, the first reunion of the Heiny Family was held. The place appointed was the grove of Mr. Henry Heiny, south of Idaville, Ind. Filled with anticipation of joyful greetings and pleasant associations, the members of the family and relatives were early on the grounds, despite the rain. All were somewhat disappointed when they found that the tables in the beautiful grove were too wet to use. But in the splendid lawn at the home of Jonathan Heiny tables were arranged. Such a feast has not been spread this year. It substantiated the reputation given the Heinys for first-class cooking. The tables groaned beneath the weight of the dinner, as did the guests soon after partaking. Mrs. Mary Pilling treated all to ice-cream; Mr. J. A. Townsley (or "Jack the Melon Man") was on hand contributing a load of his delicious melons; they were at the mercy of all. With their known kindness the Heinys remembered the editor of the "Observer" with a bountiful plate of delicious cake. This is always the proper thing. After dinner, Mr. B. F. Heiny, of Kirksville, Mo., was appointed temporary chairman for an organization, and Mr. W. H. Heiny, of Monticello, Ind., Secretary. A permanent organization was then effected. Mr. W. H. Heiny, Monticello, Ind., was chosen President; Mr. Jonathan Heiny, Idaville, Ind., Vice-President, and Thyrsa Heiny, Delphi, Ind., Secretary; Daniel Heiny, Idaville, Ind., Treasurer. A committee on program and general arrangements was appointed as follows: B. F. Heiny, W. H. Heiny, Hattie Heiny and J. A. Townsley. The time and place for the next meeting has not yet been decided. Those from a distance were: B. F. Heiny, Kirksville, Mo.; J. A. Pruitt and wife, Goodwine, Ill.; Elias Pruitt and wife, Ash Grove, Ill.; Sarah Mullendore and family; Wm. Mullendore and family; Allen Hunt-singer and family, Rockfield, Ind; Barbara Byers and grand-daughter, Reynolds, Ind.; J. F. Lake, of Camden, Ind.; Isaac Heiny and family, Carroll Co., Ind.; Wm. Lantz, Sr. and Jr., Al Lantz, J. A. Townsley and family, Lake Cicott, Ind.; Mrs. Grant Mullendore, Mandan, N. D. In all about 100 were in attendance. After the organization was completed the chairman called on J. A. Orr, Minister of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, for some words of cheer and encouragement. He spoke about fifteen minutes on the Family and the Home. His plea was to parents that they should make home attractive and Christian, to children that they love father, mother, brother, sister and home, closing by directing all eyes to our Heavenly Home, to the circle never to be broken.

That the reunion was a success all agreed and will look forward to the next one with pleasant anticipation.—Idaville Observer.

SECOND HEINY REUNION.

The second annual Reunion of the Heiny Family was held in the grove of Henry Heiny, 2 1-2 miles south of Idaville, Ind., Thursday, August 23, 1900. The A. M. was spent in greetings, social conversation and registering, interspersed with music by the Huntsinger family. The number of relatives registered was 104 of the Samuel Heiny Sr. branch of the family, and two of the Joseph Heiny branch. At about twelve o'clock dinner was announced, and the dinner was the best the country affords, and plenty for more than twice the number present.

After dinner the secretary read a very interesting and well prepared history of Jacob Heiny, the ancestor, and of Samuel Heiny, Sr., of whose descendants this reunion was more particularly held. Rev. Orr, Idaville, Ind., then entertained the congregation with a fine recitation.

The afternoon exercises were again interspersed with music by the Huntsinger family.

Before adjourning officers were elected for another year, which resulted in the re-election of the very efficient officers of last year, viz.: Wm. H. Heiny, President, Monticello, Ind; Jonathan Heiny, Vice-President, Idaville, Ind.; Thyrza Heiny, Secretary, Delphi, Ind.; and Daniel Heiny, Treasurer, Idaville, Ind. Idaville, Ind., was chosen as the place and the fourth Thursday in August, 1901, the time for the next meeting. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Miss Thyrza Heiny, the secretary for her persevering work in gathering material for her history of the Heiny families, and also to Noah Heiny, Cambridge City, Ind., for the assistance he gave her in this work.

The secretary reported as follows: Names of descendants of Samuel Heiny, Sr., gathered during the year, 830; number of family records, 180; war records, 16; number of generations recorded, 7.

The crowd was large, the weather was all that could be wished for and all went home feeling well paid for coming to the meeting. At the close of the meeting Mr. Joseph Hufford, of Burnettsville, Ind. (Moved to Reedly, California, 1910), spread a table of nice melons, and invited all to help themselves, which they did with a relish.

Those present from a distance were: B. F. Heiny, Kirksville, Mo.; A. J. Miller, Jonesboro, Ind.; Elwood Miller and Son Goyne, Fairmount, Ind.; L. H. Miller and wife, Wabash, Ind.; Mrs. Ellen Frame, Cobverse, Ind.; Mrs. Mary C. Finch, Crafton, Pa.; Daniel Heiny, Norborne, Mo.; J. H. Heiny, Cadiz, Ind.; Noah Heiny, Cambridge City, Ind., and James A. Pruitt and wife, Goodwine, Ill.

NOAH HEINY.

THIRD HEINY REUNION.

The third annual Reunion of the Heiny Family was held at Idaville, Ind., Thursday, August 15, 1901. There were about 200 present which, with but few exceptions, were of the Heiny lineage. The day was spent mainly in social greeting, many of the relatives having never met before, and others not having met for a quarter of a century. At noon a bountiful dinner was served, after which the secretary read a brief account of last year's meeting and announced that the record now contained 205 family records and 960 names. Noah Heiny, Cambridge City, Ind., followed with an interesting and appropriate speech on the History of the Heiny Family, after which Rev. Moses Smelzer, Noblesville, Ind. (a member of the Heiny Family), gave a talk which was appreciated by all. Little Harold Derr, of Wabash, Ind., represented the seventh generation of the Heinys since they located in America about 1750.
